Andrew Johnson
President of the United States of America
To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greeting;

Whereas, Joseph W. Hall, of Rowan County, North Carolina, by taking part in the late rebellion against the Government of the United States, has made himself liable to heavy pains and penalties;

And whereas, the circumstances of his case render him a proper object of Executive clemency;

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, do hereby grant to the said Joseph W. Hall, a full pardon and amnesty for all offenses by him committed, arising from participation, direct or implied, in the said rebellion, conditioned as follows:

1st This pardon to be of no effect until the said Joseph W. Hall shall take the oath prescribed in the Proclamation of the President, dated May 29, 1865.

2nd To be void and of no effect if the said Joseph W. Hall shall hereafter, at any time, acquire any property whatever in slaves, or make use of slave labor.

3rd That the said Joseph W. Hall first pay all costs which may have accrued in any proceedings instituted or pending against his person or property, before the date of the acceptance of this warrant.

4th That the said Joseph W. Hall shall not, by virtue of this warrant, claim any property or proceeds of any property that has been sold by the order, judgment, or decree of a court under the confiscation laws of the United States.

5th That the said Joseph W. Hall Shall notify the Secretary of State, in writing, that he has received and accepted the foregoing pardon.

In testimony thereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this Eleventh day of May, A.D. 1866, and of the Independence of the United States the Ninetieth.

By the President: Andrew Johnson

William H Seward

Secretary of State
